Pastor's Notes

Well, last week was VBS and it was a great success. We had a good number of children nightly and plenty of workers. The penny war went very well and we collected over $900.00 for the Baptist Children's Home. The kids enjoyed the fact that I lost the battle and received a chocolate pie in my face and on top of my head. The cheer that went up in the sanctuary upon the announcement that I lost was amazing. Even my own grandkids wanted me to get the pie. It was fun and for a good cause so, Praise the Lord!

Please be in prayer for our upcoming revival with Dr. Dennis Phelps, preaching and Haskell Dunn leading the music. It will be September 19-22nd. Please invite your friends and neighbors to attend. We are planning some special things for those nights and will look forward to your being here.

School starts Monday August 9th, please pray for our students and school teachers.

As most of you know by now Adam has accepted another position at Government Street Baptist effective August 16th, please pray for him, Emily and Kyndall as they serve the Lord there. Thanks Adam for a job well done.

Blessings Today, Bro. Mike

"CHILDREN'S CHOIR"

Parents, let me encourage you to allow your children to participate in the Children's Choir. Practice will begin on August 22nd at 6:00pm. Sandy Fields and Kim Catlett do a fantastic job. Encourage your children!

"The Christmas Song"

Christmas choir practice began last Sunday. Christmas will be here before we know it. We need more voices in addition to the wonderful ones we already have. Would you pray about joining the choir? If you are a past choir member please pray about coming back. I have heard many reasons for not being in choir, but there is one very good reason for being in choir. IF GOD IS TELLING YOU TO! How can anyone ignore that? When E F Hutton speaks everyone listens. When God speaks we MUST obey.
